Kids Inspiring and Helping Kids™

The Little Saint Nick Foundation (LSNF) was founded by Raymond Mohler Jr. at the age of six. Ray had suffered from a rare childhood hip disorder but was fortunate enough not to have any life-threatening illnesses and fully recovered.

Ray decided that he needed to give back to the kids whom he had left behind at the hospital, and his goal was to ease the anxiety and fear of those children in need. For the past 19 years, Ray and LSNF have helped over two million kids and families in need.

THE MISSION

The LSNF mission is to create a positive mentality for kids in crisis through the compassionate power of a helping hand.

We deliver smiles to kids by connecting them with kids in local communities that are inspired to give back. Through our promise of "Kids Inspiring and Helping Kids," the foundation strives to lift kids up and realize their full potential.

Meet Lexi. She received a St. Nick Gift Bag at Cohen Children's Medical Center in New York. Lexi and her family were amazed at how impactful the gift bag was for Lexi and the staff members that were treating her. Since leaving the hospital, Lexi has inspired her friends to give back to those who need it most - packing more than 1,000 St. Nick Gift Bags.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

2016: LSNF is featured in "The Halo Effect," a documentary highlighting philanthropical teenagers focused on making a difference

SUBARU

2018: LSNF is featured in the "Subaru Share the Love," commercial highlighting their efforts to be more than a car company

Nasdaq
